Event Overview

Moving on doesn't have to feel overwhelming. Join us for an honest, reassuring talk with Lisa Oshlack, founder of Moving On, on the practical and emotional side of moving to your next stage of life. For more than 20 years, Lisa has helped seniors and their families through rightsizing, and retirement transitions. She now shares that experience as a consultant and speaker across the health, aged care and retirement sectors, and she's passionate about helping people understand what families really face when leaving the family home.

Understand the practical and emotional challenges of moving Hear real insights from a specialist with 20+ years' experience Get ideas to make downsizing and relocating feel more manageable Meet our friendly team and see our community
